

Kell, Alterman & Runstein, L.L.P. Volunteers at the Oregon Food Bank

Portland, OR – November 11, 2014 - Kell, Alterman & Runstein, L.L.P. staff and attorneys worked with other volunteers on November 11, 2014 to put together a combined total of 15,784 pounds of onions and 7,714 pounds of rice for emergency food boxes for the Oregon Food Bank. That total amount of meals packed equaled to 19,581. Our team is proud to support our community and happy to help the Oregon Food Bank!

Community mindedness is nothing new to Kell, Alterman & Runstein. The firm was founded in 1929 when Gus J. Solomon established a practice dedicated to the highest levels of client service, community involvement and collegiality. Kell, Alterman & Runstein lawyers serve clients in Oregon, around the U.S. and abroad on a range of legal matters.
